

CANAL CONTRACT VOID.

COMPTROLLER MORGAN REFUSES TO PAY T. J. DWYER & CO.'S CLAIM.

He says $24,045, illegally paid, should be deducted from the claim. Their accepted bid was $125,320 Only, but $201,155 has already been allowed them.

ATMANT, July 25.—State Comptroller Morgan, to-day, by his adverse action on a contract to-day, for an unsettled canal contract, known his opposition to any further payment to such contractors where the validity of their contracts is in question. A correspondence has been exchanged between a Superintendent of Public Works Bridge and Comptroller Morgan regarding these unsettled contracts, and the last letter, which passed were given to the public by the Comptroller to-day. Under date of Monday last Superintendent Particulars wrote to the Comptroller saying that it appeared from the records of his department that there were a number of contracts for improvement work done upon the canals under the $10,000,000 appropriation, under which the work is reported to have been completed and estimates thereof rendered to not paid in full by the predecessor in office. The following were the contracts referred to with amounts due:

WILL SPEND $10,000,000 HERE IF WE CAN FURNISH EQUIPMENT FAST ENOUGH.

The Russian chief engineer of the mechanical department of the Chinese Eastern Railroad, Mr. A. Kashiwakoff, who has been in the United States for several months, left here yesterday for Harbin in Manchuria, where the temporary government of the railway are. He will get there in about two and one-half months. During his stay in this country he has ordered $250,000 worth of tools, sending some of them overland to the Deacon Memorial Chapel in the park, a non-sectarian church, consecrated to provide Mr. Ferguson, who is an ordained Presbyterian minister and a strong temperance advocate, spoke of the inspiration of the Holy Scriptures, much to the disapprobation of the inspiration, and at several points in his course his mind was mingled with the applause.

A meeting of the Prohibition County Committee was held the day after the lecture at the residence of Alfred R. Heath, the County Chairman. Mr. Ferguson was present. Mr. Elms is reported to have said to him:

"I am sure that those who heard your blasphemous lecture are not going to go to heaven." "We don't need this matter," Then took his hat and left the house.

On Tuesday the Prohibition County Convention was held and opposition to Mr. Ferguson for County Secretary was expected to develop. Nevertheless, he was elected to the place with only one dissenting vote.

Doubts Her Own Sanity.

Mrs. Jones, Who Has $16,000 in Banks Walks Into Bellevue Hospital.

Miss Anna M. Jones, 50 years old, walked into Bellevue Hospital on Tuesday and said that she had come to have her sanity tested. She said that she lived at 103 East Forty-third street and that she had been giving much attention lately to spiritualism. This she believed had unseated her mind. She said that her father, the Rev. George H. Ferguson, of Troy, N. Y., who was the first Welsh Baptist minister in America, had died in 1881.

She said that she had come to this city twelve years ago with her sister Rita, and that her husband, W. A. Fanning, had died in 1891.
